

GEN. McCLELLAN'S DEATH.

His Request is to Be Buried Merely as a Citizen of New Jersey to be Observed.

All day yesterday telegrams were being carried up the steep sides of Orange Mountain to the house on the very top of the hill in which Gen. George B. McClellan lay dead. They came from all parts of this country and from Europe, from friends of the General, and from persons to whom he was known only by reputation. Some came from men against whom Gen. McClellan fought more than twenty years ago. But one and all brought to his widow words of sympathy and condolences.

Gen. Martin T. McMahon and Mr. William C. Prime, two of Gen. McClellan's oldest and dearest friends, have announced that there will be no military display at the funeral. This is in accordance with Gen. McClellan's wish, expressed to his wife after the funeral of Gen. Grant, at which he was a pallbearer.

I do not want any such display at my funeral," said Gen. McMahon, "merely as a citizen of the State of New Jersey, without draped colors or reversed arms."

The body of Gen. McClellan's family, which the funeral will take place at 10 o'clock on that day from the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, will remain in New York until Monday the family will remain in Mr. Prime's house, 32 East Twenty-third street, until the funeral will take place at 10 o'clock on the day. The funeral will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Paxton of the West Presbyterian Church, who served under Gen. McClellan many years ago, and who is a man of very simple, no orology will be delivered. While there will be no military display at the funeral, there will be an especially invited audience of veterans who served under Gen. McClellan to be present. The following gentlemen will be the pall bearers:

John F. Hartranft, Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, U. S. A.; Gen. John Pope, Gen. James J. Johnston, Gen. Martin L. McMahon, William C. Prime, Thatcher M. Davis, Gen. H. W. Wright, Henry C. Keyes, and Samuel L. M. Barlow.

Of these Gen. McMahon and Col. Wright served on Gen. McClellan's staff in the war, while the others are to be honored with plain black cloth. The plate will bear the inscription:

"W. B. FRANKLIN, Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, U. S. A.; Gen. John Pope, Gen. James J. Johnston, Gen. Martin L. McMahon, William C. Prime, Thatcher M. Davis, Gen. H. W. Wright, Henry C. Keyes, and Samuel L. M. Barlow."

For these Gen. McMahon and Col. Wright served on Gen. McClellan's staff in the war, while the others are to be honored with plain black cloth. The plate will bear the inscription:

"W. B. FRANKLIN, Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, U. S. A.; Gen. John Pope, Gen. James J. Johnston, Gen. Martin L. McMahon, William C. Prime, Thatcher M. Davis, Gen. H. W. Wright, Henry C. Keyes, and Samuel L. M. Barlow."
